PREVIEW: MAKIKO HARRIS: NEEDLE DANCE,
ART'OTEL LONDON HOXTON (CINEMA & GALLERY SPACES)

The exhibition will run at the venue from the 17th February until the 2nd March.

Details have been unveiled of American-Japanese artist Makiko Harris's latest conceptual art film and multimedia exhibition which will be hosted at the art'otel London Hoxton, for a limited time only.

Needle Dance was created in collaboration with Director Peter Gray (renowned as a prolific and imaginative image-maker, contributing to editorial shoots for a range of luxury and style titles including Italian, American and British Vogue, Harper's Bazaar), Costume Designer Deborah Milner (noted for her sculptural and innovative couture, she also consulted for Alexander McQueen realising some of his most iconic showpieces) and Composer and Executive Producer Carlos Baslisco. The ambitious violin score that accompanies the film was also co-composed and performed by Harris.

The exhibition includes a five-minute underwater film blending stunning visuals and movement, inspired by the Japanese legend of the red thread of fate as well as monumental needle sculptures, intricate two-dimensional artworks, and original costumes by Deborah Milner.
