Berlin-based Ruprecht Von Kaufmann's 'Event Horizon' will be on view at Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery, from February 24 to March 25, 2017.

Rupert Von Kaufmann's artistic practice is a blending of figurative painting with a sculptural approach and an exploration of space and of the three-dimensional. His paintings take on an installation-like aura, sometimes spilling over the perfect linear bounds of the work itself, either through bits and pieces left hanging over or occasionally, jumping onto the walls of the gallery itself. He is obsessed with space, surfaces, textures and the way in which paintings move and change within the space they are hung in. Ghost-like figures float and waft through inky worlds of blue, grey and bruised purples. The canvases themselves are anything but two-dimensional planes, rather, they become semi-sculptural works, various pieces overlapping and appearing like patchwork skins.

The exhibition is on view at Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery Ltd., 533 Old York Road, London SW18 1TG.
