

ADIA WAHID

b, 1971, Karachi, Pakistan

Lives and works in London, UK

EDUCATION

2016 Royal College of Art

2008- Chelsea College of Arts and Design

2012

1991- London School of Economics and Political Science

1993

SOLO EXHIBITIONS

2017 Adia Wahid, Alice Black Art, London

GROUP EXHIBITIONS

2021 Wabi-Sabi, (Upcoming), Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery, London, UK

2020 When You Make Sense I Feel, Fitzrovia Gallery, London

2019 Modern Finance, Thames Side Studios Gallery, London

A Raw Garden, Fitzrovia Gallery, London

The Palace of Westminster-celebrating 100 years of Suffragettes, London

Grid:Preset, Blyth Gallery, London

2018 Link-Up Motive: Karkhana Project, Royal College of Art, London

MA Show, Royal College of Art, London

Intercontinental Line 2, Abstract Project, Paris

Thumbnails, Hockney Gallery, London

2017 WIP Show, Royal College of Art, London

Three 100, Second Floor Studios, London

2016 The Abstraction of Continents and Continents of Abstraction, Lychee One, London

Turps Summer Show, Turps Gallery, London

Correspondence Show, Rye Creative, Rye

Correspondence Show, The Artworks, Halifax

2014 Correspond, Turps Banana End of Year Show, London

2012 Degree Show, Chelsea College of Art and Design, London

AWARDS AND RESIDENCES

2020 Stellar International Art Foundation, Selected Artist for 2020