

MODUPEOLA FADUGBA

b. 1985 in Lomé, Togo
Lives and works in Ibadan, Nigeria

EDUCATION

2003-08 Chemical Engineering, the University of Delaware
2008-10 Economics, the University of Delaware
2012-13 M. ed., Technology, Innovation, Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education

SOLO EXHIBITIONS

2024 (Upcoming) Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery, West Palm Beach, USA
2021 Why Nation's Win (WNW), ALÁRA, Lagos, Nigeria
2019 Dreams from the Deep End, Gallery 57, Accra, Ghana
2018 Dreams from the Deep End, New York, US
2017 Heads Up, Keep Swimming, Temple Muse, Lagos, Nigeria
Synchronised Swimming & Drowning, Ed Cross Fine Art, London, UK
Prayers, Players & Swimmers, Cité internationale des arts, Paris, France

SELECTED GROUP EXHIBITIONS

2023 Filling in the Pieces in Black, presented by Maruani Mercier, curated by June Sarpong OBE, Saatchi Gallery, London, UK
Filling in the Pieces in Black, curated by June Sarpong OBE, Maruani Mercier, Brussels, Belgium
The Armory Show, with kó gallery, NY, US
Twice upon a time, Gallery 46 and SR Gallery, Romain Guérout & Xavier London, London, UK
2022 Dubai Art Fair, with Gallery 1957, Dubai, UAE
2017 the Royal Academy Summer Exhibition, Royal Academy of Arts, London, UK
Afriques Capitales, Gare Saint Sauveur, Lille, France
2016 Dakar Biennale, Dakar, Senegal
2015 The Art Energy, London, UK

HIGHLIGHTS

2022 New York Emmy award in the DEI Long Form Content category for the documentary video that accompanied the exhibition Dreams from the Deep End, which captures artists' activities as she paints NYC's only African American synchronized swim team of senior citizens, the Harlem Honeys and Bears.
2020 Smithsonian Institution Research Fellowship
Headlands Center for the Arts residency
2018 The International Studio and Curatorial Program residency in NY
2016 The People's Algorithm was awarded El Anatsui's Outstanding Production Prize
Grand Prize 2016 Dakar Biennale from Senegal's Minister of Communication
2014 Shortlisted for National Art Competition Grands Final, Nigerian Breweries & African Artists Foundation, Victoria Island, Lagos

COLLECTIONS

The Smithsonian National Museum of African Art
The University of Delaware
The Sindika Dokolo Foundation
The Liberian President, Ellen Johnson Sirleaf